

Unit 7 Picture Story

Chloe is reading a story about a kind boy. What may happen at the end of it? Circle the best answers and write the correct letters in the boxes.

Problem: Jason sees a hungry old man and a thirsty dog on the street. He wants to help them but he has no food or water.

Jason (the kind boy)

He is e.g. (helpful) / friendly / hungry / thirsty).

1. Where is he going?

The Old Man

2. He is (helpful / friendly / hungry / thirsty).

3. What is he looking for?

4. Does Jason want to help him?

The Lady

5. She is (helpful / friendly / hungry / thirsty).

6. The oranges in her bag fall out. How does Jason help her?

7. What does she do to thank Jason?

The Dog

8. It is (helpful / friendly / hungry / thirsty).

9. Does Jason want to help it?

→ Solution: What can Jason do?

- A. He is looking for some food.
- B. Yes, he wants to give him some food.
- C. He helps her pick up the oranges.
- D. Yes, he wants to give it some water.
- E. To thank him, she gives him three oranges and a bottle of water.
- F. He is on his way home.

Date: _____

Based on the picture below and the information on the left, complete the story. Write at least 30 more words.

Who are the characters in the story?

_____ is very kind and helpful. One day, he finishes playing in the park. 'It's five thirty. It's _____ to go home!' says Jason. On his way, he sees an _____ and _____ . They look very weak. Can you give me some food to eat _____ the old man. Jason wants to help them but he _____ .

Write the correct punctuation marks and a saying word to complete what the old man says.

_____ near Jason is carrying some oranges _____ a plastic bag. Suddenly, her bag breaks and all the oranges fall out. _____ An orange rolls into a ditch and he has to get it _____ a stick. To thank Jason, the friendly lady _____

What problem does Jason have? Does he have any food with him?

How does Jason help the old man and the dog in the end? What does the old man say?