Receiver's e-mail address

Subject: What do you do after school?

Subject

What is the e-mail about?

Dear Tommy,

Greeting

How're you? We have a football match at school today. Our team wins the match. It's exciting!

This year I join different after-school classes and make many new friends. I play football and learn shooting skills on Mondays. I have piano lessons on Tuesdays. I play the piano for the school choir on Thursdays. On Fridays, I have arts and crafts classes and swimming lessons. I'm busy but I enjoy all these activities!

How about you? Do you have any after-school classes this year? Which activity do you like best?

Write soon!

Best wishes,

Closing

Eddie 😊

Write about the main message

LEARN THIS SKILL

You can use short forms while writing e-mails to friends, e.g. The book's fun!

Ending paragraph

- Ask some questions
- Tell the receiver to write back

USEFUL TIP

We add '-s' to the days of a week to tell what people do on those days every week.

e.g. Mandy practises the flute on Sundays (= every Sunday).

Dear Eddie:

Thanks for your e-mail. I enjoy my after-school classes too!

I play tennis on 1 tuesday and I play 2 a violin at a music school 3 in Friday. My sister joins the class with me. She plays 4 cello.

I'm busy at weekends too. I have piano lessons on Saturdays. On Sundays, I play 5 the badminton with my family. It's really fun! I like it 6 bess!

What do you do at weekends? 7 When weekend 8 activities do you like best? Write soon.
