Pictures That Tell Stories

Steven Chan draws pictures for many famous children's books. He draws for his own books too. They have no words but pictures. Children love them because they are all about funny and new ideas. 5

Steven fell in love with drawing when he was a child. He drew a lot and kept his paintings in a secret box under his desk. He also liked to hide in strange places to get more drawing ideas. He once hid behind his dog's house. At that time, he saw some ants. 'Ants are so small! Is this doghouse their home too? To them, it must be a very big house!' he thought. This idea became his first book The Big House. Today, its pictures continue to surprise children all around the world. 10

Last week he published his tenth book. It is about bees helping people. Steven said, 'I drew this book for my son and children like him. He screams every time when he sees bees. I want to turn them into something interesting so he doesn't have to be afraid of bees anymore.' 15

Sometimes Steven's pictures not only tell stories, but also give us lessons. 20

Part 1: Reading Aloud 1

Read the following text aloud. (4 marks)

Comics

My favourite hobby is reading comics. The stories in comics are so exciting and the pictures often make me laugh! There are different characters in comics—some are funny, some are kind, and some are naughty. My favourite comic is The Brave Rabbit. It is about a tiny but brave rabbit going on an adventure in a jungle alone. I really like its storyline and its beautiful pictures!
