	20 April 20XX
Dear Mum,
5	I have finally arrived at St. Patrick's School in England. All the teachers here are very nice although I sometimes find it hard to follow what they say. They speak so fast! Yesterday, I made a new friend from Korea. His name is Kim. He can speak English, Korean and Putonghua. That is amazing! He has studied in Korea and China for 8 years before coming to England. Today he showed me around Moonlight Park. Can you see the picture on the back? We will visit Water Brothers with two other classmates this weekend. It is a new theme park in England. I can't wait to meet the magical characters there!

Part 1: Reading Aloud 1

Read the following text aloud. (4 marks)

I Don't Want to Be Late!

I live far away from school. It takes me 40 minutes to travel from home to school. So, I usually wake up one hour before school and take the bus to school. Yesterday morning, a loud voice woke me up in the middle of a dream. As I opened my eyes, I saw my mother looking at me straight in the eyes. 'It's already 8 in the morning and you are still sleeping!' she yelled. I took a look at my alarm clock and saw that it was not working! I did not have time to look in the mirror before leaving home. When I arrived at school, it was 8:58 am, only two minutes before the school bell rang. When my class teacher saw me, she said my hair was very messy! It was so embarrassing!
