- A Grace wrote a personal recount of what she did last Sunday. Read the personal recount. For Questions 1-5, choose the best answers. Then fill in the blank for Question 6 and answer Question 7 in a complete sentence.

The Magical Chicken Wings

Last Sunday, Fiona invited me to go out with her family. At first, we decided to go swimming at the beach but the weather was too chilly for aquatic activities so we had a barbecue instead. Fiona was a bit upset about not doing what she wanted.

5

Fiona's dad drove us to Sunset Country Park that morning. The ride took one and a half hours. When we arrived, it was too crowded so we moved to Butterfly Park nearby. We all sat around a barbecue pit there. Fiona's dad quickly built a fire and her mum took out many bags of frozen raw food. When Fiona saw a lot of sausages, chicken wings, fish balls, pork chops, steaks and sweetcorn, she gave me a big grin and said in a cheerful tone, 'Let me show you how to make barbecued chicken wings perfectly!' Perhaps the food cheered her up!

10

The chicken wings Fiona made were amazing so I asked her for the 'secret recipe'. 'Because I can do magic!' she said and spread a lot of honey on the chicken wings. Then we chatted happily and shared the food together. What a party!

Speaking

A Read aloud.

1. What can you see in the pictures? Read the words aloud.

cheese

chicken

potato chips

chilli sauce

2. Read the sentence to your classmate. Then circle the 'ch' sounds.

Mrs Chow bought potato chips, chocolate and chicken legs for her children.

B Read the text aloud. Then answer the questions.

Chicken Sandwich with Cheese

- Cut a loaf of white bread and some chicken meat into thin slices.
- Mix some salt and lemongrass with the chicken slices. Wait for 30 minutes.
- Pan-fry the chicken. It is ready when it turns golden.
- Take a slice of bread, put a slice of cheese and a chicken slice on it.
- At last, put another slice of bread on the top.

Chef's note: You may replace white bread with wholegrain bread to prepare a more nutritious sandwich.

1. What ingredients do you need to make chicken sandwiches with cheese?
2. How can we know that the chicken is ready?
3. How can we make the sandwiches healthier?

C Talk about your dining-out experiences with your classmate.

1. How often do you dine out?
2. Who do you usually dine out with?
3. What kind of restaurants do you usually go to?
4. What is your favourite dish?
5. Do you prefer eating indoors or outdoors? Why?
6. Do you think Hong Kong is a good place for dining? Why?
7. Can you share any unhappy dining experiences with your classmates?

D Fiona is having a birthday party. Her mum is talking to her. Read their conversation. Circle the best answers for Questions 1-3. Then act as the people with your classmate.

1. Mum : Happy birthday, dear!

Fiona : A. Thank you.

B. You're welcome.

C. Excuse me.

D. Happy birthday!

2. Mum : Let's eat. What do you want?

Fiona : A. I like potato chips but I don't like cheese sandwiches.

B. Let's buy some chocolate cakes.

C. I want a chicken leg and some potato chips.

D. I ate two ham sandwiches.

We can also respond to this sort of questions using 'I'd like...' e.g. 'I'd like a hamburger.' We can also say 'May I have..., please?' to express what we want in a more polite way. e.g. 'May I have a hamburger, please?'

3. Mum : Do you want some chilli sauce?

Fiona : A. Here you are.

B. No, thanks.

C. I'm sorry. I don't know.

D. Yes, I like sweet food.

We can also say 'I'm good.' or 'I'm okay.' to say 'no' to offers politely.
