

Text Type Analysis: Story

- A story is about something that happens to the main character(s). It tells when and where these things happen. It also tells what goes wrong and how the characters make it right.

A Lucky Rainy Day

It is a warm afternoon. Teddy goes to a garden. The grass is soft and the flowers smell nice. Teddy sits down and eats some honey. It is sweet.

Suddenly, the clouds turn dark. Boom! Next, many colourful balls fall from the sky! 'Ouch! It hurts! What can I do?' Teddy says.

Then, he takes out his umbrella and opens it. It is an umbrella with a big net. The net holds the balls. At last, the rain stops. There are ten small balls in the net. 'Yeah! I can play ball games with my friends now! Lucky me! 'Teddy cheers. What a nice rainy day!

Title of the story

Beginning

- When (What time) and where does the story happen?
- Who is / are in the story?

Middle

- What happens to the main character(s)?
- What goes wrong (what is the problem) in the story?

In this story, the problem is that the balls fall from the sky and hurt Teddy.

Ending

How do the characters solve the problem?