

Joanne is reading a story about a Chinese heroine.

Hua Mulan is a good girl. Her dad needs to join the army but he is old and weak. Mulan doesn't want her dad to get hurt in the war, so she cuts her long hair, dresses as a man and takes his place.

Mulan is brave and talented. She even becomes the General after some years and leads the army to fight. Everyone believes that she is a strong man.

When the war is over, the king asks Mulan how much gold she wants for the victory, but Mulan just wants to return home and look after her dad. She thinks her family is the most important thing in her life.

The next day, Mulan wears a dress and goes home. People can't believe that she is in fact a lovely woman!
