

In-text Grammar

We use the connective 'and' to join people or things in positive sentences. We use the connective 'or' to join people or things in negative sentences.

e.g. I have one brother and two sisters.

e.g. I have no brothers or sisters.

Use the plural form.

Boris is writing a letter to his pen pal.

Dear Alisha,

Hello! My name is Boris. I am eight years old. I live in Tai Po with Mum, Dad, my sister and my little brother. We are going to move to Fanling. It is because my parents want to live closer to my grandparents to take care of them.

My dad is a fireman. He puts out fires and saves people. My mum is a housewife. She cooks delicious dishes. I have no cats or dogs, but I really want one. Every night, I walk two dogs in the park for my neighbour, Mr Lo. I study in Sunflower Primary School. I am the monitor in Class 2C. My best friend is Bianca. She has big eyes and long hair. There is always a smile on her face.

Do you have any brothers or sisters? Who is your best friend? Please tell me more about you. Write soon.

Best,
Boris

Choose the best answers by blackening the circles.

1. Who is going to read the letter?

A. Bianca

B. Alisha

C. Boris

D. Mr Lo

2. Which is Boris' family?

A.

B.

C.

D.

Q2

Read paragraphs 1 and 2 carefully.

skill 3. Which is FALSE about Boris?

A. His mother does not go to work.

B. His father puts out fires.

C. He plays in the park every night.

D. He lives in Tai Po now.

Fill in the blanks with the correct words.

4. Why do Boris' parents decide to move their house?

It is because they want to live closer to _____
to take care of them.

Q5

Who is Boris' best friend?

5. How does Boris' best friend look?

Boris' best friend has _____.

Fill in each blank with ONE word from the letter.

Boris is a Primary 6 _____ student of Sunflower Primary School. He is the class 7 _____. He helps the teachers a lot.