

In-text Grammar

We use the simple present tense to talk about habits.

e.g. I clean the windows every day.

e.g. Ron always works hard.

Add '-s' or '-es' to the verbs after 'he', 'she' or 'it'.

Sally is writing thank-you cards to her parents.

Dear Mum,

You are always there to give me support when I play the violin on stage. Thanks for being my biggest fan! Also, you make a lot of delicious snacks for my birthday parties. To thank you, I want to be the chef of our home on Mother's Day and your birthday. Please be my guest and enjoy my food!

Love,
Sally

Dear Dad,

Thanks for taking me to school every day. You are hard-working. You go to work early in the morning and come home late at night. I know you are tired, but you still do the housework and help me with my homework. I am very grateful for all the things you do. From now on, I can help with all the housework you do. For example, I can walk Bonnie in the park and wash the dishes. I can also throw away the rubbish. Please sit on the sofa and watch your favourite TV programme to relax!

Love,
Sally
