

In-text Grammar

We can use object pronouns after verbs or prepositions to talk about people, animals or things.

e.g. 'Miss Tam is looking for you,' Joe told Keith and Diana.

'You' can refer to one person (singular) or a group of people (plural).

Subject pronouns	Object pronouns
I	me
You	you
We	us
They	them
He	him
She	her
It	it

Nick is reading some comments in an online forum.

KIDS' FORUM

LOG OUT

Topic: Unusual Schools in the World

Hannah

Posted on 10/07/20XX, 14:07

All Hong Kong students are having the same kind of school life! Are there any unusual and interesting schools in the world?

Chloe

Posted on 10/07/20XX, 15:26

There is a cave school in Guizhou, China. People there didn't have the resources to build a school on the ground so they built it inside a cave in 1984.

Kitty

Posted on 10/07/20XX, 20:12

That's interesting but I wish to go to the 'free' school in Brooklyn, New York. Children of different ages learn together there. They can go to any classes they like freely. They can even choose to stay home to play or nap. There are no tests, exams or homework at all!

Eric

Posted on 11/07/20XX, 11:00

Wow! I love schools that are special. I know that some students in Papua New Guinea do not need to wear uniform to school. They wear their national costume — almost naked!

Choose the best answers by blackening the circles.

1. Nick can read about _____ types of schools in the online forum.

- A. two
 B. three
 C. four
 D. five

 Q1

Don't forget the schools in Hong Kong.

2. Which is FALSE about the online forum?

- A. Students of the school in Brooklyn have a free school life.
 B. People in Guizhou built a school in a cave because they didn't have enough building materials.
 C. Chloe thinks that Hong Kong students have the same kind of school life.
 D. Some students in Papua New Guinea do not wear uniform to school.

3. Eric said some students in Papua New Guinea are 'almost naked'. It means they wear _____ to school.

- A. black shirts
 B. white shorts
 C. uniform
 D. nearly nothing

 Q3

Look at the picture carefully.

Fill in the blanks with the correct words.

 4. In the online forum, what does the word 'it' refer to?

It refers to _____.

5. How many people replied to Hannah in the daytime?

_____ replied to Hannah in the daytime.

Fill in each blank with ONE word from the online forum.

Most students in America do not need to wear ⑥ _____ to school.

They can wear what they like ⑦ _____. For example, many students like to wear T-shirts and jeans to school.