

Samuel is writing a poem about public transport.

Our Public Transport

Traffic jams in Hong Kong are everywhere.

Many cars are here and there.

Some prefer to sit back and relax.

Enjoying their speedy rides on the tracks.

You can get off at any stop you like.

It's better than riding a motorbike.

I like the public transport I use every day.

It is unique as people would say.

Only can be found on Hong Kong Island.

Its sound is rather loud, not silent.

It is precious because of its age.

Its value can't be described in a page.

Its wheels go round and round.

It doesn't make much sound.

Sitting on the upper deck is amazing.

It usually doesn't keep you waiting.

It can take you to school.

Most kids think it is cool.

Every time I go out of town,

I would probably be a bit down.

When it takes off, my ears pop.

I'm afraid that it would suddenly drop.

But how can I travel to somewhere?

When I can't sit properly in my chair.
