

Text Type Analysis: Story

A story is a description of a series of events. Usually, writers write stories to entertain readers.

Dominic the Dinosaur was tiny when he was in Primary 1. He needed to sit at the front of the classroom to see the blackboard clearly. But he grew a lot soon and became the tallest in class the following year. From then on, problems came up one after another.

Beginning

Introduce the character(s) and setting

Dominic became gigantic in size. He scared his classmates because his giant hand could touch the top of the door. Dominic was also too strong. Once during the PE lesson, he kicked a football so hard that it broke the net of the goal and hurt one of his classmates by accident.

Development

- Write a number of events that happened to the main character(s)
- Bring the story to the climax

Dominic was very upset because his classmates did not like him. His class teacher noticed that and wanted to help him. She encouraged Dominic's classmates to see him in a different light. 'Dominic's size and strength can be helpful in many ways,' she said.

Climax

Tell what major problem the main character(s) faced

After that, Dominic always helped his classmates. He got the books from the top of the bookshelves in the library for them without using a ladder. He also carried the sick classmates to the medical room. After some days, Dominic got along well with his classmates. He was not sad any more.

Ending

Explain how the main character(s) solved the problem
