

Charles is reading an interesting story.

Last Sunday, Kyle went hiking alone but he got lost. He wandered around the forest and arrived at a farm.

A young boy ran towards him and asked, 'Who are you?' The boy looked familiar to Kyle but he couldn't recognise his face. 'My name is Kyle,' he said. The boy said, 'Hi! I'm George. I live with my parents and my piglet Benny. We grow vegetables on our farm.' He then showed Kyle his toys, including a spinning top and some marbles. They played around the farm until the sun went down. Then, as Kyle was about to say goodbye to George, he suddenly felt very dizzy and he passed out.

When Kyle opened his eyes, he found that he was lying on his bed at home. That night, Kyle searched through the photo albums. He stopped and screamed as soon as he saw an old photo of his grandpa holding a piglet when he was small!
