 My favourite sport is basketball. I want to be as famous as Jeremy Lin someday. What is your favourite sport and how often do you play it?

 I love swimming and I have training twice a week. I always feel tired after the training so I don't have any more motivation to revise for my tests and exams. I got bad grades last time and my parents scolded me for my poor performance. Maybe I should quit the training soon.

 I was in your shoes, Alice! I stopped playing table tennis because I wanted to focus on my studies. But it made me more stressed and depressed. So, don't give up swimming. How about we become study buddies? We can encourage each other!
