

In-text Grammar

We can use 'use... to...' or 'with' to talk about the way of doing something when we write guidelines or instructions.

e.g. Use some pieces of string to tie the bells to the plate.

e.g. Cut the paper in half with a pair of scissors.

Show the purpose of the action.

Tired of looking for a photo frame that best fits your favourite photo? It's time to make a special photo frame by yourself!

Things you need:

Steps:

- 1 First choose a theme, e.g. 'Mum's Birthday', for your photo frame. After that you may use a pencil to draw an outline of simple pictures on it.
- 2 _____? _____ pick the glass tiles that you like to match the theme. Then stick the glass tiles on the photo frame with glue.
- 3 You can add other materials like shells and marbles to decorate your photo frame. Do not choose delicate materials or the glue may damage them easily.
- 4 Finally use puffy pens to write a few words about the theme on the glass tiles. Wait until the ink dries. Then blow-dry it further with a hairdryer. The heat will puff the words up.

Choose the best answers by blackening the circles.

- Which of the following can replace ' _____ ? ' in the instructions?
 - A. You
 - B. Next
 - C. Quickly
 - D. Go
- In the instructions, what does the word 'stick' mean?
