

Text Type Analysis: Film review

- A film review is an article which gives an opinion about a film. The reviewer usually writes a brief summary of the plot with some positive or critical comments.

The Haunted House (20XX)

Name of the film

State the title and year of release of the film

James Brown

Name of the reviewer

State the name of the person who writes the film review

The plot is set in an American neighbourhood. Julie Watson (Jennifer Stone) and Hank Lee (Tom Harris) are newlyweds who have just moved into a new house. Something strange begins to happen around their home while they are asleep. Things seem to move by themselves or go missing in the middle of the night. These incidents drive the couple crazy. They have called the police several times but they are not trusted. When they are about to give up and move out of the house, they discover a big secret that is related to the whole population of the world.

Synopsis

Briefly talk about the setting, the characters and the plot of the film in the simple present tense

The film is very similar to David Strong's Spooky Mansion. However, I think this film is much scarier. I shook like a leaf because the special effects and the sound effects were truly eerie! I was amazed by the excellent performance by the Oscar-winning actress Jennifer Stone. The most impressive part to me was the unexpected and inspiring ending. I recommend this film to all thriller lovers. It won't disappoint you for sure!

Comments

Give personal opinions and feelings about the film, e.g. comments on the plot, characters, actors' performances, special effects, etc.