

Amy is reading an acrostic poem about charity work.

CHARITY

by Nancy Wu (P.6C)

Charity work makes us feel satisfied and proud.

Have fun selling flags or going on a charity walk.

At a funfair, we can run a second-hand stall or put on a play.

Raise money for the poor, the needy and the sick.

It's worthwhile to serve free food to the homeless.

Team up with like-minded friends to do a beach clean-up.

You and I can give the city some love and care in many different ways.

Choose the best answers by blackening the circles.

1. Amy is reading the poem in a _____.

- A. storybook
 B. lifestyle magazine
 C. school newsletter
 D. textbook

 Q1
Identify the poet.

2. Nancy encourages the readers to _____.

- A. do charity work
 B. run a second-hand stall
 C. raise money
 D. help the homeless

 Skill 3. Which is Nancy's opinion?

- A. Raising money can help the poor.
 B. Flag-selling is a kind of charity work.
 C. Going on a charity walk is fun.
 D. Giving out free food can help the homeless.

Fill in the blank with the correct words.

4. How many kinds of charity activities does Nancy talk about in the poem?

She talks about _____ _____ in the poem.