I like action films a lot. The Fast and the Furious series is my favourite and I've watched all of the nine films already. I'm always on the edge of my seat when I watch them. Vin Diesel and his sports cars are so cool!

I like animated films especially those created by Pixar. I watched Incredibles 2 in the cinema last week. It was amusing! All the characters have distinctive superpowers. I'm yearning for more sequels!

Yeah, I watched it today and I couldn't help laughing throughout the film! I also love science fiction films as they are full of fantasy and special effects. I think I might be the no.1 Star Wars fan in Hong Kong!

Horror films make me sweat and get short of breath, but I'm addicted to them. I even made a short one for my school project last year. However, I can hardly find any friends to watch horror films with me!
