

Read the farewell speech and the messages below.

Good morning, everyone. I'm Pam Li from Class 6B. Time flies and we're leaving this school soon. We have had many precious memories together. The most unforgettable event for me was the graduation camp when I was asked to complete some challenging missions with my teammates. I tried to solve the problems on my own but then I realised that my teammates could be great support at hard times. I've learnt to work with others when I encounter difficulties. I used to be selfish and arrogant as well, but I was taught to care about others' feelings and be humble. I believe most of the PG students have gained a lot from the camp. I would like to give special thanks to our teachers for organising such a great event for us. We will miss all of you as St. Johnson Primary School has been the place where we learn, play and grow up together. Thank you very much!

Pam,
I remember you took me to the medical room when I felt ill at the camp. You're such a sweet girl. Keep in touch!

Dear Pam,

Have I ever told you that I love your voice a lot? I hope we will join the choir together in secondary school.

PS, thank you for teaching me to do sums in class.

Dear Miss Ho,

You taught me not to give up easily when I am given some difficult tasks to do. You also asked me not to be proud when I've completed tasks that seem impossible. I will always remember your words.

I am sorry for breaking your cup. I cried as I felt guilty and scared. But you were so warm that you cheered me up with a lollipop. Thank you.
