Grammar Notes

want to

I want to make a cheesecake.
Let me see. I need eggs, cream cheese, biscuits, butter...

Don't bother making a cake! Why don't you just buy one? You only need eighty dollars!

We use 'want to' to talk about things that we wish to do or plan to do. We use the base form of verbs after 'want to'.

I	want to	eat	ham sandwiches.
Ellie	wants to	make	a hot dog for lunch.

Grammar Tip

We use 'do not / don't want to' or 'does not / doesn't want to' to talk about things we do not wish to do.

e.g. Jasper doesn't want to eat carrots.

Warm-up

A Jasper and Ellie made their lunch and dinner at home today. Rearrange the words to form correct sentences by writing numbers in the brackets.

1. Lunch

2. Dinner

Grammar Notes

need

We use 'need' to talk about things that we have to have. We can put nouns or noun phrases after 'need'.

I	need	some chicken wings.
We	need	two bread rolls and some jam.
She	needs	eggs, ham and honey.

Grammar Tip

Note that 'need to' is different from 'need'. We use 'need to' to talk about actions that we have to do. We use the base form of verbs after 'need to'.

Common Errors

✓ We want to make salad.

✓ We need tomatoes and lettuce.

✗ We want make salad.

✗ We need to tomatoes and lettuce.

1. Mum wants to / ✗ make some milk tea.

Grammar Tip

2. She needs to / ✗ tea, milk and sugar.

Note that the word 'some' is optional before both countable and uncountable nouns.

e.g. ✓ Ellie wants to make cupcakes.

✓ She needs some sugar.

Warm-up

Jasper's class is planning to have a cooking party. Look at the memos and fill in the blanks with the correct form of 'need' and the given words.

Jasper
