

7 Which Would You Like?

Date : _____
Grade : _____

Grammar Notes

Question Word: Which

To reward you for being good, you can choose the weekend activity. Which would you like to do, homework or housework?

Is it a reward or a punishment?

We use the question word 'Which' to ask people to choose from a limited number of options.

Grammar Tip

We use 'or' to link the choices. The choices can be:
e.g. 'football' or 'baseball' (nouns / noun phrases)
'have tea' or 'go fishing' (starting with verbs)

Which	would you like	to eat,	biscuits	or	fruit?
		to drink,	juice		tea?
		to do,	play games		read books?

Warm-up

A Jasper is asking Ellie what she likes. Fill in the blanks with the correct words and draw lines to complete the questions.

- Which would you like to play, _____ • a zoo or a museum?
- Which would you like to see, _____ • potato chips or a chocolate?
- Which would you like to visit, _____ • a video game or a board game?
- _____ would you like to eat, _____ • take a nap or go for a walk?
- _____ • an adventure film or a horror film?
to do, _____ film?

Grammar Notes

would like

We use 'would like' to talk about people's preferences in a polite way.

I	would like	to go hiking after breakfast.
Mum	would like	to have a cup of hot lemon tea.

I'd like to watch a musical with my friends.

Grammar Tip

'I'd like' is the short form of 'I would like'. When ordering food and drinks, we can simply put a noun or a noun phrase right after 'would like'.
e.g. I'd like a cup of hot lemon tea.

Common Errors

- ✓ Miss Kam would like to see my parents.
- ✗ Miss Kam would like seeing my parents.

1. Ellie would like to read / reading a magazine.
2. I would like to try / trying the new dish.

Grammar Tip

We use to-infinitives after 'would like'.

Warm-up

Matt is asking Jasper what he would like to do at his home. Complete their conversation with 'Which' and 'would like'.
