Theme: Growing up

Text Type: Book report

E. Joshua is writing a book report. Complete the book report by circling the best answers.Title of book: Are You Healthy at Heart?Summary and comments:

This book talks about the mental health of teenagers (1) are going through puberty, a stage that young people experience rapid changes in their (2) development. The book explains different sources of stress (3) are common at puberty. They include high awareness about self-image, adults' expectations and peer pressure. However, as teenagers are (4) adults, sometimes they may feel (5) and think (6).

In the book, Dr Leung, (7) is an (8) youth psychologist, suggests a number of ways to handle these kinds of stress. For example, he encourages teenagers to talk (9) to their parents and friends, and take part in group activities.

I think this book is (10) useful. It helps me learn more about myself. Last year, I realised that my voice changed and I became emotional. I was once (11) with these changes but now I accept that these changes are normal at puberty. I hope I will be able to cope with the stress and live (12) in the future.
