A Thrilling Taxi Ride

Emma is hard-working and often (1) studies (study) at school until late evening. Last Friday, she (2) _____ (leave) school at 7 pm. She had to hurry home for dinner, so she got on a taxi just outside school.

‘Rainbow Garden, please.’ Emma told the taxi driver. The ground was slippery. It (3) _____ (rain) when the taxi drove off. Emma was so tired that she fell asleep.

After a while, Emma woke up. ‘Where (4) _____ we _____ (go)?’ She was confused. ‘It’s already 7:45 pm but we still (5) _____ (not arrive) yet.’ Then she noticed that the taxi wasn’t going the usual way home.

‘Don’t worry. I (6) _____ (be) a taxi driver for 25 years. I (7) _____ (drive) there,’ the driver answered coldly. While the taxi driver (8) _____ (talk), Emma (9) _____ (think) how to escape. ‘I go home by bus every day. Why did I take a taxi today?’ She regretted it.

The taxi (10) _____ (not stop) until it arrived in front of a house at a dark and quiet place. ‘Where (11) _____ (be) I? I (12) _____ never _____ (be) to this place. Oh no! (13) _____ he _____ (kill) me?’ she thought. Emma was very frightened so she jumped out the taxi, ran to the house and knocked on the door for help.

When someone (14) _____ (open) the door, Emma was shocked. ‘Happy birthday, Emma!’ She saw her parents and her classmates in the house. ‘We (15) _____ (wait) for you for almost an hour! (16) _____ you _____ (remember) it’s your birthday today?’ Emma’s best friend Megan asked.

Recalling that this was Megan’s home and seeing so many familiar faces in front of her, Emma at last wore a faint smile on her face, though she was still quite puzzled how the taxi driver had known where to drive her to.
