

Grammar in Real Life 4

A reporter is doing an interview with Miss Siu, the victim of a car crash. Correct the underlined mistakes and write the correct form of verbs in the spaces provided.

Reporter: Miss Siu, you look good today. How's your leg now?

Miss Siu: The doctor said my leg is in stable condition. (1) Knew that it is going to recover, I feel relieved. If I hadn't been saved in time, I (2) would have my leg cut probably.

Reporter: It's true. Could you recount what happened in the car accident?

Miss Siu: (3) Finish shopping in the supermarket, I drove home. Suddenly I realised that I had forgotten to buy something. I (4) won't crash into a truck if I hadn't decided to return.

Reporter: Oh... it was a big crash indeed.

Miss Siu: Yes, it was. My car was turned upside down. (5) Trapping in the car, I was really scared. Then I felt a great pain in my left leg and soon became unconscious. If I hadn't been hurt so badly, I (6) wouldn't faint.

Reporter: Luckily, several men passed by the scene. If they (7) aren't there, no one would have pulled you out of the crashed car.

Miss Siu: True. I really want to thank them in person.

Reporter: If they (8) didn't refuse to be interviewed after helping, we would have known more about them. They just said, 'If you (9) was us, you (10) would have done the same.'

Miss Siu: (11) Was saved by the good-hearted men, I feel very grateful. If I found out who they are, I (12) will repay them for sure.
