

Complete the exercise below with the words from the word box.

instinct	predators	appealing	humane	absurdly
confine	exploitation	imprisonment	migration

1. Many seniors, despite having reached the retirement age, have no choice but to re-enter the labour market, only to live on the _____ low wage which can barely cover their expenses.
2. It is a sad but hardly questionable fact that, in show business, being physically attractive seems to be more _____ than being talented to most people.
3. Most poor people in Hong Kong have to unwillingly _____ themselves to shoebox flats, since they can never ever afford the exceedingly high property prices.
4. Princess Mononoke, an animated film directed by Hayao Miyazaki, is about the terrible consequences of humans' _____ of natural resources for their own selfish advantages.
5. Whether it is _____ to perform cosmetic tests on animals has long been hotly debated among animal rights activists and the other parties.
6. The Shawshank Redemption is a film about a man who, sentenced to life _____, plans his getaway by digging a tunnel from his prison cell to the outside world.
7. To follow _____ or to stick to a plan, when it comes to making an important decision, is perhaps the most difficult question for every indecisive person.
8. Many citizens, who long to escape from the madding crowds and fast pace of life in the city, is planning their _____ to North America in search of a new life of peace and freedom.
9. Humans are the cruellest of all _____ because they prey on non-human animals as a form of entertainment and a showcase of authority.