

Complete the exercise below with the words from the word box.

revelation	practitioners	encyclopedic	unflagging
dazzled	accused	restored	feigns	arduous

1. After being falsely _____ by his oversuspicious wife of being unfaithful, he, heartbroken, moved out of the house with his son, leaving her to descend into insanity alone in the now empty house.
2. 'Fear not, for the _____ effort you've made will pay off at the end,' said a teacher to a student preparing for the public exam.
3. The audience was _____ by Joaquin Phoenix's performance in Joker, in which Joker is portrayed as a vulnerable villain deserving of sympathy.
4. Sally has a special way of showing off her _____ knowledge of biology to her friends—she would invite them on a nature tour and then lecture them on the features of wild animals, plants and flowers along the way.
5. Catch 22, Joseph Heller's first novel, tells the story of a bombardier who _____ injuries and sickness in the hope of avoiding as many flying missions as possible.
6. Code of Professional Conduct requires medical _____ to treat patients equally, regardless of their age, disease or disability, creed, ethnic origin, gender, nationality, political affiliation, race, sexual orientation, social standing or any other factor.
7. Happy endings in novels and short stories, in which villains are punished, conflicts resolved, and social order _____, are too much a product of wishful thinking to become real in this chaotic time.
8. The interpreter's mastery of ten languages comes as a _____ to me—no wonder he is seen by the president's side whenever an interpreter is needed.
9. An _____ passion to explore the unexplored is one of the qualities possessed by research students in any discipline.