

Complete the exercise below with the words from the word box.

dedication	excessive	necessities	distinguished
feasible	abstain	deserve	consumption

1. The meat of animals that are slaughtered in ways prohibited in the Quran, the holy book of the Muslims, is considered impure, unclean and thus 'haram', an Arabic term that means 'forbidden'. This is why Muslims _____ from haram meat.
2. It is found in a recent study that an average American takes in around 3,400 milligrams of sodium, exceeding the recommended daily intake by nearly 2000, and that many are ignorant about the relation between high sodium _____ and health problems like kidney stones and enlarged heart muscle.
3. In 1945, Scottish biologist Alexander Fleming was rewarded the Nobel Prize in Medicine in honour of his discovery of penicillium and his _____ to the inspection of its antiviral properties.
4. A wise and responsible company would try to foster a harmonious workplace culture by securing a comprehensive benefit scheme for its employees, who _____ to be treasured as assets, rather than to be manipulated as donkeys, if not slaves.
5. The photos taken with a high-end smartphone, especially one that is equipped with the latest optical technology, are difficult to be _____ from those captured from a full-frame digital camera.
6. Despite an intriguing plot and an all-star cast, this highly anticipated film has been criticised for its _____, unnecessary violence by both critics and reviewers.
7. The government's emergency plan to cope with the raging fire, which had been turning the forest into ashes, was dismissed as impractical and far from financially _____.
8. Surgical masks and antibacterial hand sanitisers, the _____ for every household during a major public health emergency, usually become the most in-demand products on the market as public fear grows.