

Complete the exercise below with the words from the word box.

sublime	blockbusters	acclaimed	grudges
flawless	averse	exemplify	vying	radically

1. 'His unbelievable devotion to his profession is why he won numerous awards and was such a critically _____ actor. To me, Heath Ledger was, is and will be my favourite actor of all time,' said the well-respected film critic.
2. 'Charlotte is a vegan,' Vanessa said, 'so you should have expected that she would be highly _____ to a feast without greens.'
3. 2001: A Space Odyssey, one of the _____ in the year of its release, has yet to lose its charm, considering that it is still being analysed and interpreted from different angles by film fanatics across the globe.
4. The films directed by Christopher Nolan _____ masterful storytelling since, aside from being intriguing, they are also deeply insightful, given the controversial topics they usually deal with, such as the blurred boundary between good and evil, and the thinking they prompt.
5. It wouldn't be long before computer scientists could create a _____ model of artificial intelligence that has the ability to think and feel the way a human does.
6. It is completely understandable that the survivors of the bombing attacks would hold _____ against the soldiers who vandalised their homes.
7. As the housing policies rolled out by the former prime minister have been dismissed as totally impractical, they are now expected to be _____ reshaped in the coming year.
8. 'A list of soundtracks composed by world-class composers. A screenplay written by an Oscar-winning screenwriter. A cast made up of talented actors and actresses of all ages. What a _____ combination. This, I think, is a modern classic film,' said the host.
9. I have two kittens at home called Muffin and Scone. Ever since Scone came, Muffin has been acting rather strangely, like walking on two legs! I guess she is _____ with Scone for my attention, isn't she?