

Complete the exercise below with the words from the word box.

compliments	vogue	enticing	snoop
tout	enthraling	binge-watch	tycoon

1. I've never watched a more heartbreaking and heartwarming drama than the Japanese drama, Memory. After I watched its first episode, I decided right away to _____ the rest in 9 hours.
2. It is believed by some that _____ to children, be they on their personality, their kindness, their attitude or their manners, boost their self-esteem and make them feel loved and valued, when given in moderation.
3. Drugs themselves cannot be attractive to youngsters. It is the 'coolness' inappropriately attached to the act of taking drugs that makes them _____ in the eyes of the young.
4. Mona Lisa, perhaps the most famous painting in the world, portrays the _____ smile and mysterious gaze of Mona Lisa in such an unbelievable way that makes her eyes follow whoever looks at her.
5. To create articles with eye-catching headings, paparazzi regularly _____ on celebrities, most commonly by stalking and taking pictures from afar.
6. Many healthcare brands like to _____ their supplement products, claiming, for example, that they are miraculously effective in slowing down the aging process, while, fully aware that they do not work as well as advertised.
7. Lee Ka-shing, otherwise known by Hongkongers as 'Superman Li', is a business _____ whose influence extends to numerous industries, such as real estate and retail, locally and internationally.
8. More and more people believe that having a dark complexion is as important as being in good shape, so sunbathing is very much in _____ now.