

Complete the exercise below with the words from the word box.

accumulated	momentary	lay bare	disclose
reckless	launch	had been all ears	Livestreaming

1. It took Jack Parsons, a little-known rocket pioneer, countless years to have _____ enough experimental data to create the first solid-fuel rocket.
2. As Brian cut off his storytelling right before the story's climax, Hebe, who _____, yelled in disappointment, 'Ugh, the suspense is killing me!'
3. It is against the law for any insurance company to use, _____ or transfer the personal information of its customers without their consent.
4. Having predicted the reduction of the printed-book market and the substantial revenue that would come from the _____ of e-books, many publishers have begun to develop their own digital reading platforms to compete for a slice of the cake.
5. Though she had been told that it was unwise of her to _____ her emotions in the workplace, she did not seem to care too much about appearing to be a misfit to the others.
6. _____ on social media sites is a common practice among many celebrities who like interacting with their supporters in real time.
7. Although his deliberate lies had at first managed to fool the officers into believing that he was not the murderer, his _____ hesitations in giving a full account of the incident called into question the credibility of all he said.
8. The driver, who insisted on driving his colleagues home after drinking and caused a car crash which led to the death of two young people, was charged with _____ driving.