Pre-reading Part B (p.9)

1. What is your favourite childhood memory?

A: I have fond memories of my childhood, especially when I used to visit my grandparents in Yuen Long. One of my favourite things to do was spending time on their farm, watering the plants, and weed the patch of land behind their house. We had so much fun together, laughing and screaming while enjoying the sunny summer days.

B: That sounds like a lot of fun! I remember when I was a child, I always took the ferry from the Central pier to Tsim Sha Tsui with my parents every Saturday morning. It was exciting to watch the beautiful views of the harbour as the ferry chugged its way through the water. Our trips would often end with a delicious Korean meal on Kimberley Street...

2. How do you prioritise your studies?

A: I think it's important to prioritise your studies based on the urgency and importance of each task. Starting with my homework that needs to be turned in the next day is a good approach. For group projects, I would break down larger tasks into more manageable ones. It is essential to determine which tasks should be completed right away and which ones can be tackled later.

B: Sounds nice! Every day before doing my homework, I like to go over what I have learned that day. Doing revisions helps reinforce the concepts. After completing the homework, I usually spend lots of time studying mathematics. Well, I find mathematics more challenging compared to other subjects, so I prioritise it and dedicate more time to it. How about you?

C: As for me, I would put dictation tasks first. I usually recite and dictate vocabulary before doing my homework. Then, I focus on preparing for quizzes, tests or exams ...
