Class No.

You and two other members of the Social Service Group are organising an event to serve a group of people. You are discussing some plans for the event.

In your discussion, you may include:

- which group of people you will serve
- when and where the event will take place
- whether there will be training sessions for students
- what students can do at the event
- how you will tell other students about the event
- any other important details

You may begin by saying:

We are going to organise an event to serve a particular group of people. Let's discuss which group of people we want to serve...
