Ways of Reading

We all know that reading makes us smart, but some people think reading is not fun and easy. Actually, reading can be fun if you know the correct way to read.

First, you should choose some light reading to start with. Second, always ask yourself questions when you read. This helps you understand the book better. Also, ask your parents or teachers when you do not understand what the book is talking about. You can learn a lot from reading!
