Unit 5 The circle of love (p.47)

What can we do to help ethnic minorities and new immigrants integrate into society?

Write an article to share your thoughts in about 200 words.

Hong Kong is flourishing and attracting people from all over the world to put down roots here. More than 600,000 non-ethnic Chinese people call Hong Kong home. They contribute diversity and vitality to the growth of our city. Between ethnic minorities and our mainstream society, there may be a gap due to language and cultural differences.

The government may plan more events, such cross-cultural programs and festival celebrations, to aid ethnic minorities' integration into the local community and improve their interaction and understanding with local residents.

For job seekers, proper employment assistance centres can be established to offer them suitable training programs and employment counselling to aid in their job search. Also, schools can set up language programs to teach Mandarin and English at different levels in order to help children who have trouble communicating with one another.

In the area of health care, hospitals can provide counselling and referral services, to help ethnic minorities learn more about medical resources and ensure that language barriers do not prohibit them from using public health services.

To summarize, we can develop appropriate policies for employment, education, healthcare, and community support to aid ethnic minorities in adjusting to Hong Kong society.
