

Revision 5

Listen!

Elaine, an American student, is reading an itinerary for a 4-day, 3-night trip to Hong Kong. Read it carefully.

Day 1

5

Upon arrival at the airport at noon, we will check in at Eden Hotel in Tsim Sha Tsui. Then we will spend the whole afternoon shopping in this district for name-brand goods before we enjoy Peking duck in a Chinese restaurant. Then, we will watch 'A Symphony of Lights', a daily light show at Victoria Harbour scheduled between 8:00 and 8:15 pm before we go back to our hotel.

We will have lunch at a Hong Kong-style teahouse in Mong Kok. Then we will shop along Fa Yuen Street and Ladies' Market for bargain souvenirs during the afternoon. In the evening, we will try the open-air food stalls along Temple Street and visit fortune tellers, who will predict your future and give you advice!

Day 2

10

15

To make sure we have enough time for the numerous attractions, including the giant pandas, dolphin show, game stalls and exciting rides, we will reach Ocean Park by 11:00 am. We will stay in the park till 8:00 pm and leave after watching the 360° water screen show. You may buy your own dinner before we return to the hotel.

We will take the Ngong Ping 360 cable cars to get to the Big Buddha, which is also known as Tian Tan Buddha, on Lantau Island. The ride is about 30 minutes long and you can enjoy the great view. We will remain there for an hour before we end our trip with a vegetarian lunch at Po Lin Monastery at 1:00 pm.

A short trip to Hong Kong

I had a wonderful time in Hong Kong last week! Let me sum up my trip there.

On the first day, after taking the ❶ _____ cable car and enjoying the unforgettably breathtaking scenery there, my friends and I had a lovely meal in Tsim Sha Tsui. Then, we went to the tallest building in Hong Kong, the ❷ _____, whose basement is the Elements shopping mall. On the second day, my friends and I decided to go to the ❸ _____, where I bargained with the traders and bought some accessories and clothes at budget prices! In my opinion, it is the best place for ❹ _____! After we finished the shopping, we paid a visit to ❺ _____, in which I gave 'kau cim', a form of fortune-telling, a go. I kept shaking a bucket of bamboo sticks until one fell out of the bucket. It was so much fun! Having visited malls and markets, we felt that we needed to try out Hong Kong's theme parks so we went to Disneyland the next day. Once we got there, we spent around 15 minutes ❻ _____ (Goofy and the Evil Queen are my favourites!). Then, we spent the rest of the day ❼ _____ and my favourite one is called Mystic Manor, which is a dark ride attraction. The day before I left the city, I went to Central and visited ❽ _____, a war memorial that commemorates those who died in the two world wars.

All in all, I have nothing to complain about my trip to Hong Kong. I'm sure I'll revisit the city soon since there are still a lot of unexplored spots there!
